

Using infographics

What information stands out?

How does the creator use images/graphics to represent information?

What surprises you about the information you are seeing?

Are there any sudden shifts in the information/data?

What story can you pull from the information/data you are looking at?

Can you find who authored the infographic (group or individual)?

What is the role of the narrator, or the person making the graphic?

What is their perspective and what are they trying to tell us?
